

FAIRVIEW CEMETERY

This cemetery is 1 mile northwest of Callaway, Custer County, Nebraska on the Arnold road and then 1 1/2 mile north. It is accessible from the road. The sign at the cemetery says "Fairview". It is known as the Baker Cemetery, as one of the first burials was that of Caroline Lodema Baker, who died July 14, 1886 - a daughter of T. U. Baker, who then donated the ground for a cemetery. It is also known as the Evans Cemetery, North Table Cemetery, Little Table Cemetery or Fairview. The second grave is that of Alice G. Wymore, 1864-1886.
